4. STATEMENT: The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional.

A Final Rejection was mailed to Applicants on February 25, 2003. A Response, including an Amendment under 37 C.F.R. § 1.116, was subsequently filed with the U.S.P.T.O. on April 14, 2003. On October 21, 2003, a Notice of Abandonment was mailed to Applicants by Examiner Jacqueline F. Stephens for failure to timely file a proper reply to the Office letter mailed on February 25, 2003.

On December 1, 2003, Examiner John Calvert informed Applicants by telephone that said Response had been located at the U.S.P.T.O., and that the Abandonment would therefore be withdrawn. However, a Supplemental Notice of Abandonment was mailed to Applicants on December 12, 2003 by Examiner Stephens, stating that while said Response was, in fact, received on April 14, 2003, it did not constitute a proper reply under 37 C.F.R. § 1.113(a) to the final rejection.

On April 20, 2004, Applicants filed a Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent Abandoned Unintentionally under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b), along with an Amendment after Final Rejection Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.116 to place the claims in condition for allowance. However, Applicants inadvertently submitted an incorrect fee for said Petition, thus preventing the U.S.P.T.O. from reviving the application and examining the Amendment. On December 8, 2004, Applicants were informed of such deficiency by Petitions Attorney Edward J. Tannouse.

On January 27, 2005, Applicants re-submitted the Petition for Revival (including the correct petition fee) and the Amendment after Final Rejection Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.116 to place the claims in condition for allowance. As of February 10, 2005, said Petition and said Amendment had not yet been logged in as being received by the Office of Petitions, so Applicants re-faxed these documents, along with the fax receipts from January 27, 2005.

On March 29, 2005, the Office of Petitions mailed Applicants a decision on the Petition for Revival, stating that the petition was dismissed for failure to timely file a reply within the meaning of 37 C.F.R. § 1.113.

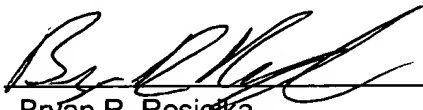

Applicants apologize for this oversight, and are now respectfully submitting a new Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent Abandoned Unintentionally under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b) with a new fee, a Request for Continued Examination, and an Amendment Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.116 in response to the Office Action mailed February 25, 2003.

If the Petitions Attorney feels that any issues remain, then Applicants' undersigned attorney would appreciate the opportunity to discuss the case with the Petitions Attorney.

The undersigned may be reached at: (920) 721-4405.

Respectfully submitted,
JASPREET SINGH ET AL.
